THE UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI INTER-AMERICAN LAW REVIEW

The University of Miami Inter-American Law Review (IALR) was founded in 1969 and provides unparalleled opportunities to reach the legal market in South Florida and in Latin America. The IALR publishes 2 times per academic year (August – May).

The IALR offers the opportunity for students and practitioners to write articles about legal topics relating to North, Central, and South America, as well as the Caribbean. In addition to publishing in print, in 2013 IALR launched a blog, IALR Online. The blog is available at:
<http://inter-american-law-review.law.miami.edu/>

IALR welcomes submission of articles prepared by scholars, practitioners, and students, and will consider selected pieces written in Spanish and Portuguese. IALR receives submissions for its blog by contacting IALR@law.miami.edu, and traditional article submissions may be submitted via the email address above or to IALR via the ExpressO/Bepress site at law.bepress.com. Traditional law review articles must comply with The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (19th ed. 2010), published by the Harvard Law Review Association.

The IALR generally gives great deference to an author's work, but retains the right to determine the final published form of every article.
